

Albers Outdoor Stool Green

Part seat, part sculpture—the Albers Outdoor Stool keeps things interesting. Its low-profile oval top and sculptural base bring a fresh, grounded look that works indoors or out. Made from a concrete-and-fiber mix, each piece shows natural variation in color, pattern, and texture, so no two are exactly alike. Water-resistant and easy to place where needed, it adds extra seating with an artful point of view.

- Sculptural Profile: A low-profile oval seat and sculptural base give this stool a bold, grounded silhouette that works as seating and a graphic accent.
- Concrete Character: Made from a concrete-and-fiber mix, each piece shows natural variation in color, pattern, and texture for a look with individual character.
- Balanced Build: Lightweight yet sturdy, the concrete-and-fiber construction gives the stool a substantial presence while keeping placement flexible around the home or patio.
- Indoor-Outdoor Flex: Suitable for indoor and outdoor use, this stool is stain- and water-resistant, and should be stored inside or covered during inclement weather.
