

Archimedes Coffee Table Copper

Industrial edge with a nautical streak. This round coffee table pairs a clear glass top with an intricate aluminum base finished in warm copper, letting the sculptural metalwork stay visible from every angle. The glass keeps things visually open while the base does the work of a centerpiece underneath. It is the kind of table that starts conversations and holds your coffee at the same time.

- Intricate Base Design: A detailed, open-work aluminum base creates visual depth and gives this coffee table a sculptural, industrial character.
- Copper-Finished Aluminum: Cast aluminum with a copper finish adds a warm, burnished glow that pairs well with both neutral and bold surroundings.
- Glass Top: A round, clear glass tabletop keeps the silhouette visually light, letting the intricate base remain the focal point from any seat.
- Conversation Starter: The combination of industrial metalwork and nautical influence makes this a centerpiece that draws attention in any living room.
