Bent Round Dining Table 54 In Brown

Round tables just know how to keep a conversation going. Bent brings nature's handiwork to the center of the room, letting solid acacia show off its knots, whorls, and one-of-a-kind character. A natural stain keeps the look warm and grounded, while the curving iron base adds an industrial edge that feels light on its feet. Big on presence, easy on the everyday—pull up four and stay awhile.

- Round, Room-Ready Style: A clean circular top highlights the Bent collection's nature-forward look, balanced by an industrial base with a softer, curved silhouette.
- Solid Acacia Character: Made with a solid acacia top in a natural stain that celebrates real wood variation, from grain movement to unique knots.
- Iron Base Strength: Solid iron legs form a sculptural support that keeps the profile open while offering steady, well-made structure for daily dining.
- Seats Four Comfortably: A spacious round surface makes it easy to gather, pass plates, and keep sightlines open—ideal for everyday meals and game nights.
