

Bent Sideboard Brown

Nature did the styling here. Bent turns solid acacia into storage that doesn’t hide its character, thanks to a live-edge look that spotlights knots, whorls, and grain. The iron base adds a clean industrial counterpoint, keeping the piece feeling open instead of bulky. Behind two doors and in side-mounted drawers, there’s plenty of room for dining essentials, bar gear, or everyday clutter. Use it as a buffet, console, or storage cabinet, then pair with the rest of Bent for a cohesive feel.

- Natural, Rooted Look: Live-edge solid acacia brings organic character, while the iron base adds a light industrial edge that keeps the silhouette airy.
- Solid Acacia Case: Crafted from solid acacia in a brown finish that highlights natural grain variation, knots, and wood movement for a lived-in feel.
- Iron-Supported Structure: An iron base provides steady support and a clean outline, designed to hold up while letting the wood stay front and center.
- Storage That Works: Two doors and side-mounted drawers organize utensils, linens, and serving pieces, with easy access whether it’s dining night or not.
