

Bradbury Large Coffee Table Black

Solid acacia all the way through, base included. Round from top to base, the Bradbury large coffee table gets its rustic character from solid acacia wood and a semi-gloss finish that brings out the grain. Knots and natural color shifts run across the surface in a pattern the wood set for itself. A classic circular table with rustic personality in every grain line and knot.

- Round, Top to Bottom: A circular design carries from the tabletop down to the base, giving the rustic look a soft, continuous shape from any angle.
- Weight You Can Feel: Solid acacia runs through the entire table, base included, so the weight and density stay consistent from the top to the floor.
- Finished With Low Sheen: A semi-gloss finish adds a low sheen that deepens the black color and brings the texture of the wood forward.
- Marked by the Tree: Knots and natural color shifts appear across every table, so the pattern you receive belongs to that piece of acacia alone.
