

Breton Cast Aluminum Wall Sculpture Black Set Of 3

For walls that want more. Breton brings sculpture onto the wall. Cast in aluminum with an aged black finish, each piece in the set has a freeform, pebble-like shape that feels organic and grounded —like something unearthed, not manufactured. The trio can be arranged any way you like, adding depth and texture to any space. It’s wall decor with shape, weight, and a welcome break from the expected.

- Pebble-Like Forms: A set of three freeform shapes brings organic texture and contemporary movement to the wall in an aged black finish.
- Cast Aluminum Texture: Cast aluminum gives each wall sculpture a grounded metal presence, while the pebble-like surface nods to forms from nature nearby.
- Flexible Wall Arrangement: Configure the three pieces together or apart, creating a custom wall moment with sculptural rhythm and organic texture at home.
