

Cosmo Outdoor Coffee Table Off White

A coffee table with a little earth in its attitude. The rounded form and off-white concrete-and-stone mix give Cosmo a grounded presence that feels clean-lined and sculptural outdoors or in. Small stones throughout the composite create an organic porous finish, with natural variation in pattern and texture from piece to piece. Suitable for indoor or outdoor use, it is best covered or stored inside during inclement weather to help maintain its surface.

- Concrete Stone Mix: Concrete blended with small stones under 3 mm creates an organic porous surface, with pattern and texture that naturally vary from piece to piece.
- One-Of-A-Kind Surface: The composite construction creates natural variation across the finish, giving each table its own distinct surface character and a more layered visual read.
- Flexible Placement: Suitable for indoor or outdoor use, this table moves easily between spaces and is best covered or stored inside during inclement weather.
