

Dana 85" Outdoor Sofa - Blue

SKU: TOV-O54931

The Dana Outdoor Sofa brings a sculptural softness to open-air living, blending organic curves with the durability needed for everyday outdoor use. Its rounded silhouette and extra-wide arms create a grounded, cocooning presence that feels as inviting as it looks, designed for slow mornings on the patio, sun-soaked afternoons by the pool, and evenings that stretch long into the night. Handwoven in all-weather resin wicker, Dana captures the natural warmth of woven texture while offering resilience against the elements. Plush performance boucle cushions introduce a tactile layer of comfort, crafted to resist water, stains, and mildew without sacrificing softness. Beneath its sculpted form, a lightweight aluminum frame provides rust-resistant strength and effortless stability. Relaxed yet elevated, Dana transforms outdoor spaces into thoughtfully layered retreats that feel every bit as refined as the indoors.
