

Danny Dining Chair Dark Brown Set Of Two

Light on the floor, generous where it counts. Sold as a set of two, Danny floats at the table with a curved iron frame that feels airy, then surprises you with a cushioned seat that invites second helpings. Upholstered in dark-brown polyester, the padded seat and back sit over supportive foam and a shaped plywood shell, all perched on a minimalist metal base. It keeps the room open and the conversation grounded, night after night.

- Airy Curved Frame: A slim iron frame arcs around the seat and back, keeping sightlines open while adding a soft, sculptural outline at the table.
- Soft Polyester Cover: Dark-brown 100% polyester upholstery feels smooth and easygoing, with foam padding that balances sink-in comfort and everyday support for long dinners.
- Supportive Shell: A shaped plywood shell gives the seat structure, so the cushion holds its form and the back stays steady as you lean.
- Clean, Tuck-In Base: The minimalist metal base slides in close to the table, keeping floor space clear and making chairs easy to pull up.
