

Ellory Dining Chair Oat Set Of Two

A tall, gently curved back, sculpted to the spine. That tall backrest gives the Ellory dining chair a quiet, comfortable presence on tapered legs, sold as a set of two. Oat polyester over foam-and-fiber fill keeps the seat soft and easy to live with. A solid ash frame with webbed seat suspension and plywood support adds give where you sit and structure where it counts. Tall, easy, and made to linger over.
