

Esme Outdoor Cafe Table Cream

Not your typical café table. The Esme creates the look of tiled stone and metalwork using a single poured concrete form. Its glossy, tile-like top shows intentional imperfections for character, while the base is finished to mimic traditional metal. The contrast between top and bottom makes each table feel dynamic and one of a kind. Designed for indoor or outdoor use, Esme blends illusion with lasting function.

- Layered design: Gloss-finished top contrasts with a metal-like base, creating a sculptural silhouette that feels modern and visually grounded.
- Concrete form: Made entirely from poured concrete, engineered to mimic the look of mixed materials while offering the strength of one.
- Crafted detail: Tile-like surface shows slight variations and imperfections, giving each table individuality and a sense of artisanal character.
- Dual placement: Built for both indoor dining and outdoor settings, combining functional durability with a striking visual presence.
