

Frankie Dining Chair Grey Set Of Two

Dinner should feel easy—and look intentional. Frankie brings that “pulled-together” calm with Scandinavian-inspired curves and clean lines that don’t overdo it. The padded seat strikes a comfortable middle ground for long meals, while top-grain leather keeps things refreshingly low-maintenance (yes, it wipes clean). Supported by a solid rubberwood frame with MDF structure where it counts, Frankie is ready for nightly meals and last-round conversations alike.

- Scandi-Quiet Style: Modern curves and clean, simple lines give your dining setup a design-forward look that plays nicely with a lot of spaces.
- Top-Grain Leather: Wipe-clean leather upholstery keeps everyday messes from becoming a whole thing, while still feeling polished and comfortable to sit in.
- Solid Wood Support: A solid rubberwood frame paired with MDF structure helps the chair feel steady and well-made through regular, real-life use.
- Cushioned, Not Fussy: Comfortable padding keeps the seat inviting for lingering meals without turning your dining chair into a lounge piece.
