

Frankie Dining Chair Tan Leather Set Of Two

Your dining table called—it wants better seating. Frankie mixes Scandinavian restraint with modern curves, so the room feels pulled together without trying too hard. The top-grain leather upholstery wipes clean with ease, while foam cushioning keeps things comfortable for lingering meals. A metal frame with rubberwood legs adds a crisp, grounded contrast, and zig-zag seat springs give the sit a little extra support. Two chairs, one simple upgrade you’ll feel nightly.

- Scandinavian-leaning Curves: Sleek lines and gentle shaping keep the look clean and modern, making Frankie an easy match for everyday tables and styled moments.
- Top-Grain Leather: 100% top-grained leather brings a natural look with wipe-clean practicality, so spills don’t get to dictate the vibe.
- Supportive Seat Feel: Foam cushions pair with zig-zag seat springs for a comfortable sit that holds up through long dinners and longer conversations.
- Steady Mixed Materials: A metal frame and rubberwood legs create a solid, balanced base that feels grounded and visually light around the table.
