

Holland Mirror Large Brown

Flat frames, take notes. Holland gives tradition a tactile twist. Carved from mango wood with groove and scallop detailing, it nods to classic molding—then turns up the texture. The warm, aged finish highlights natural grain, bringing depth, warmth, and the right amount of charm to your wall.

- Carved Frame Play: Rectangular carved details and delicate scalloping add playful movement to the traditional frame shape, giving the mirror character from the edges.
- Aged Mango Wood: Mango wood in an aged brown finish highlights natural graining, bringing warmth and visible material depth around the mirrored glass.
- Heritage Molding Mood: The frame's molding-inspired shape nods to traditional design while the carved patterning keeps the overall look fresh and lively throughout.
- Mirrored Wall Function: Mirrored glass adds light and reflection to a wall, while the wood frame gives the piece a warm finished border.
