

Jinny Dining Chair Flecked Beige Set Of Two

Cane rattan and an open back—sculptural seating that arrives two-by-two. A café-style silhouette gives the Jinny a traditional, organic presence, with a matched pair landing for easy symmetry around the table. Flecked beige solution-dyed polyester resists fading over a foam-and-fiber seat and webbing suspension, on a solid ash and rattan frame with plywood support that stands up to years of everyday dinners. Two chairs, one easy decision.

- Open and Sculptural: An open-back silhouette with exposed rattan reads café-traditional, a sculptural shape that adds organic character to the dining table.
- Ash and Rattan: A solid ash and rattan frame pairs sturdy hardwood with woven detail, bringing natural texture and warmth to the open-back design.
- Webbing Suspension: Webbed seat suspension under a foam-and-fiber seat keeps the sit supportive and comfortable through long, lingering dinners and everyday meals.
- Two of a Kind: The Jinny arrives as a set of two, so a matched pair lands at your table ready to anchor both ends of the table.
