

June Modular Sofa Oatmeal

June is your living room's reset button. This modular trio lets you lounge now and remix later, working as free-standing pieces or a connected setup. Oatmeal performance fabric adds warm texture, lifted by oversized oak veneer legs for breathing room. Inside, foam plus feather and fiber fill brings that pillow-like sink, with lumbar toss cushions to keep comfort balanced. Solid wood and plywood framing keeps everything steady through sprawl and movie marathons too.

- Modular, Easy Flow: Three modular pieces — two corners and one sofa — create a clean, low profile you can link together or float around the room.
- Textured Performance Fabric: Textured performance upholstery blends 72% polyester and 28% acrylic, giving a warm oatmeal tone that's easy to style and live with.
- Steady Wood Foundation: A solid wood and plywood frame pairs with an oak veneer base, keeping the sit stable while the look stays light.
- Plush With Protection: Foam, feather, and fiber-fill cushions plus lumbar toss pillows invite long lounging, and protective leg glides help your floors handle rearranging.
