

Keaton Dining Chair Black Set Of Two

A dining chair that skips the reinvention and leans on solid oak. Solid oak framing gives the Keaton dining chair a grounded, traditional stance in a deep black stain, sold as a set of two with the grain showing through. A removable Velcro seat pad, cushioned with foam and fiber, softens each sit and lifts off for cleaning. It arrives fully assembled—sit down and stay awhile.

- Classic Silhouette: A clean, traditional silhouette in solid oak gives this dining chair a grounded presence that suits classic and transitional dining rooms alike.
- Solid Oak Grain: A solid oak frame in deep black stain lets the natural grain lead, giving each chair in the set of two genuine wood character.
- Comfort, Held In Place: A removable Velcro seat pad cushioned with foam and fiber stays put through dinner and lifts off in seconds when it needs cleaning.
- Ready Out Of The Box: Each chair arrives fully assembled and ships in eco-friendly packaging from Vietnam, so it is ready for the table the moment it lands.
