

Kerrigan Coffee Table Dark Brown

Smooth wood up top, woven leaf below, a study in natural contrast. Two materials come together with clear intent: a warm sungkai wood top over a hand-woven banana leaf shelf, each playing off the other's texture and tone. Turned legs give the Kerrigan a crafted, sculptural detail you'll keep noticing. Made by hand, it carries a human touch you can genuinely feel. Artisan character, two levels deep.

- Layered, Artisan Look: A warm, hand-crafted silhouette layers two natural materials in a deep brown palette, giving the table a considered, artisan presence in any seating area.
- Wood Meets Woven Leaf: A smooth sungkai wood top pairs with a hand-woven banana leaf shelf, the two textures and tones contrasting for genuine natural depth.
- Turned Leg Detail: Turned legs add a crafted, sculptural detail at the base, the kind of hand-shaped character that signals a piece genuinely made by hand.
- A Second Surface: The lower banana leaf shelf offers a practical second tier for books or objects, adding storage and woven texture beneath the main top.
