Luke Coffee Table Amber

Amber glass gives daylight a warmer route through the room. Reminiscent of vintage furniture, that warm tone sits in a chunky rubber wood frame that keeps the Luke coffee table firmly contemporary. Bullnose edges soften the base, and the thick tempered glass top resists scratches and stains while staying durable without being heavy. Retro warmth, a chunky modern frame, and a round top that keeps its looks.

- Vintage Glow: Warm amber glass carries a retro reference, while the round top and chunky frame keep the whole table firmly contemporary.
- Light, Softened: Amber tinting softens the daylight passing through the top, while rubber wood legs bring natural warmth to the base underneath.
- All in the Detail: Bullnose edges on the base round every corner, softening the overall look and giving the frame a smooth line all the way around.
- Made to Stay Sharp: The tempered glass tabletop is durable without being heavy, and it stands up to scratches and stains through daily coffee-table duty.
