

Mako Sideboard Large Grey

Extra-long, extra room behind the doors. The Mako Large Sideboard stretches Art Deco symmetry across a calm gray finish, with a shagreen-inspired surface that adds depth without shouting. A solid black oak frame is wrapped in shagreen-patterned polyurethane, then set on antique-gold finished legs for a warm contrast. Behind the doors, two shelves adjust for tall bottles, platters, and media gear. It’s storage that earns its square footage and keeps the room looking composed every day.

- Long, Deco-Driven: An extended silhouette and crisp geometry give the room a strong anchor, finished in calm gray for softer contrast.
- Shagreen Texture, Easy Care: Shagreen-patterned polyurethane adds depth and wipes clean, framed in black oak and lifted on antique-gold finished legs.
- Structured Wood Core: Solid oak framing and panel construction keep doors aligned and surfaces stable, so the profile stays sharp over time.
- Extra Storage, Adjustable: Two interior shelves adjust for tall bottles, platters, or media gear, giving you more flexibility across more space.
