

Mako Small Sideboard Grey

Small-space size, sideboard function. The Mako Small Sideboard channels Art Deco lines in a calm gray finish, pairing a shagreen-style surface with warm brass touches. Shagreen-patterned polyurethane wraps the cabinet, framed in solid black oak and sealed with a matte lacquer look for low-key polish. Inside, two fixed shelves keep essentials organized—think linens, serveware, or that growing stack of records. It’s the tidy-up move that still feels designed for your entry, dining, den.

- Compact Deco Lines: Art Deco-inspired proportions and a soft gray finish give you statement storage that doesn’t crowd the room.
- Shagreen-Style PU: Patterned polyurethane delivers the look of shagreen with easy care, set against brass details and a black oak frame.
- Matte-Finish Casework: Solid oak framing and plywood construction keep the cabinet feeling well-made, finished with a muted lacquer look throughout.
- Ready-To-Use Shelving: Two interior shelves are fixed in place, creating simple zones for linens, glassware, or everyday drop-and-go items inside.
