

MOE'S

Maro Coffee Table Brown

Some tables whisper — Maro keeps a steady beat. A round top perched on a chunky pedestal, it brings calm curves with just enough modern edge to keep things interesting. Mango wood adds natural character, while the bullnose tabletop softens the silhouette for an easy, welcoming feel. Two turned grooves in the base introduce subtle rhythm and depth without stealing the room. Consider it your living space’s most composed conversation starter.

- Soft-Curve Statement: A round tabletop with a smooth bullnose edge balances gentle lines and modern presence, making the room feel considered, not fussy.
- Mango Wood Warmth: Crafted from mango wood in a brown finish that highlights natural grain variation for a grounded look that plays well with layered textures.
- Turned Base Detail: A sculptural pedestal with two stacked grooves adds dimensional interest and a sense of movement, while keeping the overall form clean.
- Easy, Everyday Surface: The domed pedestal profile creates a stable visual foundation, and the rounded top keeps corners out of the way in high-traffic layouts.
