

Martens Dining Chair Green Velvet

The Martens chair does that rare thing: it looks light, but sits seriously comfortable. An open barrel back keeps the silhouette airy, while the frame flows in one continuous curve from leg to seat for a clean, uninterrupted line. Green velvet upholstery adds a rich pop without overwhelming the room, and generous padding keeps things comfy through dessert. Finished with armrests for a more grounded feel, it’s polished — but never precious.

- Airy Barrel Back: Open, sculpted back and a continuous curved profile create a clean look that feels light in the room, not heavy.
- Green Velvet Cover: 100% polyester velvet in a saturated green adds depth and softness, paired with foam padding for an easy, stay-a-while sit.
- Iron Frame Structure: Iron frame and plywood seat support keep the form steady, while maintaining the chair’s fluid line from leg to frame.
- Arms, Not Extras: Integrated armrests add support and a more formal posture at the table — great for lingering courses and long conversations.
