

Orpheus 35"X31" Ribbed Faux Stone Wall Mirror

SKU: TOV-C18954

The Orpheus Mirror Collection captures a sculptural, organic sensibility, where form and texture take center stage. Inspired by wabi sabi design, each piece features a ribbed faux stone frame that brings depth and movement, creating a striking interplay of light and shadow across its surface. Crafted from lightweight yet durable fiberglass, the frames offer the look of carved stone with a more versatile, easy-to-hang construction. Available in both rectangular and freeform organic silhouettes, including a tall floor mirror that leans effortlessly into the space, Orpheus invites a more expressive, curated approach to styling. Whether anchoring a room or adding dimension to a quiet corner, these mirrors reflect a sense of calm, intentional design.
