

Orrix Outdoor Bar Table White

Cast concrete with the nerve to hold court outdoors. A bold, architectural form gives the Orrix table a strong presence in a yard, finished in a smooth matte surface that reads modern and refined. Cast as one solid, sculptural piece, it stands up to the elements and holds its own as a gathering spot on a patio, deck, or terrace. Made for the backyard, shaped for the eye.

- Weather-Ready Concrete: Water-resistant concrete stands up to sun, rain, and outdoor use, making the bar table a durable fixture for patios, decks, and terraces.
- Sculptural Form: A bold, architectural silhouette gives the table a strong sculptural presence outdoors, working as much as a design statement as a gathering spot.
- Smooth Matte Finish: A smooth, matte concrete finish brings a modern, refined look, softening the material's weight while keeping its solid, grounded character.
- Made to Gather: Counter-height proportions invite friends to pull up and lean in, anchoring an outdoor space for drinks, snacks, and easy conversation.
