

Punyo Punyo Accent Table Espresso Brown

Punyo Punyo is a playful interpretation of rhythm and repetition—a waved silhouette made of Acacia wood brings all that organic energy that calms and rebalances the senses. While this accent table's expressive profile adds both visual and tactile appeal to any interior setting, this design also utilizes end-grain pieces which come together into a beautifully patterned tabletop. Completing this distinctive piece is a unique seam that runs along with the tabletop joinery technique, visible throughout the piece's side profile.

- Playful Ribbed Form: Soft, rounded ribs give the square shape a wave-like rhythm inspired by organic forms, adding sculptural warmth and personality to any room.
- Solid Acacia Wood: Crafted from acacia, bringing natural grain character and warm tonal depth to a contemporary shape that feels inviting and grounded at once.
- Espresso Semi-Gloss: A rich espresso brown finish with a soft sheen brings out the acacia's natural grain, adding layered color and warm visual depth to the surface.
- Stain and Water Resistant: Handles spills, condensation, and everyday wear without marking, so the surface stays clean and vibrant through daily use with minimal upkeep.
