

Rayne Textured Fabric Bed - Honey / Queen

SKU: TOV-B54946

Wrapped in softly textured woven upholstery, the Rayne Bed introduces a calm, sculptural presence that instantly elevates the bedroom. Its low, grounded profile feels effortlessly modern, while thick, rounded edges soften the rectangular silhouette into something more fluid and inviting. The fully upholstered frame flows seamlessly from headboard to footboard, creating a cohesive, cocoon-like effect that feels thoughtfully composed from every angle. At the base, oversized natural wood ball feet add an unexpected, playful twist, bringing warmth and an organic contrast to the tailored form. A plush, foam-padded headboard offers the kind of comfort that invites slow mornings and late-night unwinding, while a sturdy slat system ensures practical support without the need for a box spring. Rayne balances softness and structure in a way that feels quietly luxurious and distinctly contemporary.
