

Reflection Framed Painting

Water ripples drawn in concentric circles, pulling the eye straight to the center of the frame. Swirling rings give the Reflection a dynamic, energetic quality, while a reflection of foliage up top adds depth and a sense of place. Acrylic on canvas in deep navy, warm gold, olive, and white, the layered tones read atmospheric, almost impressionistic. Framed in solid white wood, calm water with quiet movement.

- Concentric Ripples: Water ripples in swirling concentric circles draw the eye inward, giving the piece a dynamic, energetic, nature-inspired composition.
- Atmospheric Acrylic: Painted in acrylic on canvas, deep navy, gold, olive, and white layer into an atmospheric, almost impressionistic surface full of depth.
- Grounded in Nature: A reflection of foliage along the top adds depth and a sense of place, grounding the rippling water without reading too literal.
