

Rhone Coffee Table Dark Brown

Tapered legs and a burl top that swirls like weather. Cylindrical legs narrow toward the base, giving the Rhone coffee table an organic, sculptural presence under a thick top, while its low profile keeps the whole piece feeling grounded. A mappa burl surface carries swirling, organic grain that makes every table one of a kind, tied together by a tonal dark brown finish across edge and base. Sculpture you can set a coffee on.

- Sculptural Tapered Legs: Cylindrical legs taper toward the base for an organic, sculptural stance, while a low profile keeps the coffee table feeling grounded and open.
- Mappa Burl Top: A mappa burl surface carries swirling, organic grain, so every top reads a little differently and brings genuine natural character to the room.
- Thick, Grounded Profile: A thick top paired with a low, grounded stance gives the table a solid, substantial presence that holds the center of a seating area.
- Tonal Dark Finish: A tonal dark brown finish runs across the edge and base, tying the whole piece together into one cohesive, considered silhouette.
