

Rodi Cocktail Table Dark Green Lacquer

Part mushroom, part modern sculpture, and a surface for your drink. A softly rounded triangular top sits on a tapered cone base, giving the Rodi an organic, considered silhouette that reads as modern as it does natural. A generous overhang keeps the piece feeling light on its feet despite its solid, substantial form. A deep green high-gloss lacquer adds a rich, moody finish that amplifies the sculptural shape. Side table by day, sculptural accent always.

- Sculptural Silhouette: A rounded triangular top and tapered cone base give the table an organic, mushroom-like form that feels modern and considered at once.
- Deep Green Lacquer: A high-gloss dark green lacquer gives this version a rich, moody finish, its glossy surface amplifying the sculptural quality of the form.
- Lightness in Overhang: A generous overhang lets the top float beyond the base, giving the piece visual lightness even with its solid, substantial presence.
- Versatile by Nature: Its compact scale works beside a sofa or lounge chair and reads just as well as a standalone sculptural accent.
