

Rothko Outdoor Stool Blue

Part sculpture, part seat — the Rothko stool refuses to pick just one. A low, oval profile rises from a sculptural base for a monolithic presence indoors or out, here in a deep blue that grounds the form. Cast concrete carries natural variation in color and texture, so each stool reads as its own piece. Suited to indoor or outdoor use, it slides from garden arrangement to sofa-side end table. Pull it up for one more seat, or let it stand alone.

- Sculptural Base: A low-profile oval seat rises from a sculptural base, giving the Rothko a monolithic, art-forward presence wherever it lands indoors or out.
- Cast Concrete: Concrete construction carries natural variation in color and texture, giving each deep-blue stool its own one-of-a-kind, sculpted surface to show off.
- Indoor Or Out: Suited to patio or living room, the sculptural form takes everyday use in stride and moves wherever an extra seat is needed.
- Stool Or Side Table: Low and steady, it works as occasional seating or an end table beside the sofa, doubling its job in any room.
