

Rothko Outdoor Stool Cream

Part sculpture, part seat — the Rothko stool refuses to pick just one. A low, oval profile rises from a sculptural base for a monolithic presence indoors or out, here in a soft cream that lets the texture lead. Fiber-reinforced natural concrete means no two pieces share the same color, pattern, or texture. Stain- and water-resistant, it moves easily from garden arrangement to sofa-side end table. Pull it up for one more seat, or let it stand alone.

- Sculptural Base: A low-profile oval seat rises from a sculptural base, giving the Rothko a monolithic, art-forward presence wherever it lands indoors or out.
- Natural Concrete: Fiber-reinforced natural concrete varies in color, pattern, and texture piece to piece, so each cream stool carries its own one-of-a-kind surface.
- Stain And Water Resistant: A sealed surface resists stains and water, handling patio weather and everyday spills while keeping its composed, sculptural look intact.
- Stool Or Side Table: Low and steady, it works as occasional seating or an end table beside the sofa, doubling its job in any room.
