Rye Sideboard Warm Brown

Mid-century, squared off and dressed in wood slats. A slatted wood design with side slat detailing gives the Rye sideboard a contemporary mid-century look, squared off with no soft edges and an air of openness. Solid mango wood grounds the piece in a warm, comforting tone, while three drawers fronted in woven tatami mat add texture and keep everyday items tucked away. Slatted, square, and quietly warm — mid-century with a fresh angle.

- Slatted Mid-Century: A squared, slatted design with side slat detailing brings a contemporary mid-century look, lending the sideboard openness and an inviting, grounded feel.
- Solid Mango Wood: A solid mango wood frame carries warm natural grain and a comforting brown tone, bringing durable wood character to the dining or living room.
- Woven Tatami Fronts: Drawer fronts wrapped in woven tatami mat add natural texture and a soft contrast against the wood, giving the piece a handcrafted detail.
- Everyday Storage: Three drawers and interior shelving keep linens, serveware, and everyday items organized and out of sight behind a clean, slatted front.
