

Howell Dining Table Natural

Strength and subtlety meet in harmony with the Howell dining table. Its solid acacia tabletop features a live edge, with knots, whorls and grain serving as a glorious reminder of the wood's organic natural origins. An addition of grace comes from the two razor-thin legs, composed of sturdy dark iron. Whether you're looking for an industrial or contemporary piece, this table will be the perfect fit.

- Live-Edge Industrial: A live-edge solid acacia top paired with gunmetal iron legs gives this table a warm, industrial look that anchors a dining room.
- Solid Acacia Top: Crafted from solid acacia with a natural, water-based finish, the top showcases distinctive grain and knots, so no two tables match exactly.
- Gunmetal Iron Legs: Sturdy iron legs in a gunmetal finish give the table a stable, grounded base and a quiet industrial edge underfoot.
- Seats Up To Eight: Generous proportions seat up to eight, making this table well suited to long dinners, shared work, and gatherings that linger past dessert.
