

Dorsey Table Lamp Black

When light adds weight. Dorsey brings some serious edge to the table. Its angular, hammered metal base is all texture, finished in aged black for that lived-in feel. Up top, a warm brown cotton shade adds the right glow. Sculptural, grounded, and confident, it's the kind of lamp that knows how to pull a room together.

- Hammered Metal Base: A striking triangular base with a textured, hammered finish adds depth and visual interest.
- Aged Black Finish: The aged finish highlights the hammered texture of the metal, creating a subtle interplay of light and shadow.
- Angled Cotton Shade: A warm brown, angled shade made from cotton fabric complements the base's aged black finish.
