

Lavinia Table Lamp Aged Brass

A slender stem, a wide shade, and brass that's earned its patina. A classic, refined silhouette rises from a generous circular base to a wide conical shade, giving the Lavinia table lamp a shape that stays current year after year. Hammered detailing on the aged brass base adds a handcrafted touch, while a fine linen shade softens the light it casts. Quiet, understated, and confident enough to let the form do the talking.

- Refined Silhouette: A slender stem rises from a circular base to a wide conical shade, a classic format that stays current in any room.
- Aged Brass, Hammered: An aged, patinated brass finish with hammered detailing brings handcrafted, antique-leaning character that feels authentic rather than overly polished or new.
- Soft Linen Light: A fine linen shade diffuses the light into a soft, warm glow well suited to a bedside, console, or living room.
