

Maro Dining Table Brown

Round tables just make conversations easier. Maro brings that easy flow with a bullnose edge that feels welcoming and a sculptural pedestal that keeps the center clear. Crafted in mango wood, the design blends classic detailing with modern simplicity—refined, but never fussy. Two turned moments in the base add subtle movement, while the domed profile grounds everything with architectural balance. Comfortably seats 5–6, and looks composed even when dinner gets lively.

- Rounded, Refined Shape: A round top with bullnose edge creates a smooth, inviting silhouette that softens the room and keeps seating feeling connected.
- Mango Wood Warmth: Made from mango wood in a rich brown finish, bringing natural character and a grounded tone that plays well with mixed materials.
- Sculptural Turned Base: Two turned details add depth and visual rhythm, while the rounded pedestal and domed profile deliver a balanced, architectural foundation.
- Easy Seating Flow: Comfortably seats 5–6 and keeps the base centered, so chairs slide in neatly and legroom stays open around the table.
