

Tri Mesa Bar Table Brown

Warm walnut, bar height, and room for happy hour. Rich walnut grain plays against a black rubberwood base below, a contemporary contrast that reads as considered, balanced, and easygoing. The Tri-Mesa's round top comfortably seats four, while the raised stance keeps the conversation easy and casual. Pour something, pull up a stool or two—this is a piece designed for the slow part of a good evening.

- Warm Meets Dark: The warm walnut top and dark rubberwood base create a contemporary contrast that anchors a corner or doubles as a casual gathering spot.
- Solid Walnut Surface: A 100% solid walnut top brings rich, natural grain and the kind of substance you notice the moment you set a glass down.
- Grounded Base: A solid rubberwood base in black gives the table a sturdy footing and a visual weight that balances the lighter tone of the walnut.
- Made for Gathering: The round top comfortably seats four at bar height, keeping drinks, snacks, and conversation within easy reach for everyone around it.
