

Bancroft Counter Stool Grey

With glam copper detailing, the Bancroft Counter Stool gives a modern edge to the rustic wooden seat. A strong iron base gives and airy feel to your bar area, while a solid mango wood is carved out giving the seat an extra element of comfort. Perfect for any bar area or counter.

- Industrial, Softened: An iron base keeps the footprint open and airy, while copper detailing brings a warm accent to the gray industrial shape.
- A Seat With Substance: Solid mango wood shapes the seat, its rustic character and natural warmth set against the metal frame that carries it.
- Carved for Comfort: The seat is carved out for an extra element of comfort, so a wood stool stays easy to sit on through a long meal.
- Counter-Height Ready: Set at counter height, the stool pulls up to a bar area or kitchen counter and sits at exactly the right level.
