

Nio Swivel Counter Stool Dark Green

Spin toward the conversation — Nio swivels with a sculptural, turned-leg stance. Made for busy counters, it keeps you comfortably in the mix without weighing the room down. Solid oak construction brings natural strength, while a rounded, padded seat with foam-and-fiber fill softens every perch. Upholstery in Dark Green plays grounded against the wood, and an integrated metal footrest ring supports your feet and steadies the base. Just swivel, settle, and stay awhile for every morning meeting.
