

Owing Counter Stool Black

A curved back and open frame—mid-century design distilled to its essentials. This counter stool is made entirely from solid oak and finished in semi-gloss black for a look that's grounded and clean-lined. The mid-height back supports comfortable, upright seating without crowding the counter. A scratch-resistant surface handles daily use with ease, and because each piece of oak carries its own grain and knots, no two stools are exactly alike. Form with a fingerprint.

- Curved Open Back: A mid-height curved back and open frame create a clean mid-century silhouette that keeps sightlines clear around counters and islands.
- Solid Oak Frame: Made entirely from solid oak and finished in semi-gloss black, delivering a grounded, clean-lined profile with natural wood character throughout.
- Naturally Distinct: Each piece of oak carries its own grain patterns and knots beneath the dark finish, meaning no two stools share the same look.
- Ready for Daily Use: A scratch-resistant surface protects the solid oak from everyday scuffs and wear, so the stool holds up season after season.
