

Early Counter Stool Faux Green Mohair

Minimal frame, maximum sitting time. Early brings calm, considered lines to the kitchen island, with a curved back that makes lingering feel effortless. A slim metal frame in a blackened bronze finish keeps the profile light, while foam cushioning over a plywood shell adds steady support. Wrapped in faux green mohair, it pairs especially well with warm wood tops and clean dinnerware. Pull it up, settle in, and let the room do the talking today.

- Slim, Easy Lines: A clean counter-height silhouette with a curved back and blackened bronze-finish frame that stays light around the kitchen and works with modern or classic tables.
- Velvet-Like, Easier: Faux mohair-style polyester gives velvet-like depth with easier upkeep, paired with foam cushioning for a seat that stays comfortable over time.
- Steady Inner Structure: Foam over a shaped plywood shell creates a supportive seat and back, set on a slim metal frame for steady daily use.
- Pull-Up Friendly: Comfortably curved, high-back support makes this stool easy to settle into, and the open frame tucks neatly under most counters without crowding the room.
