

Owing Low Back Counter Stool Black

Mid-century, distilled to a low-back stool in solid oak. A solid wood frame and clean low back give the Owing stool a timeless mid-century silhouette, grounded and clean-lined at the counter. Made entirely from solid oak in a black finish, it offers upright seating that won't crowd the counter, with a scratch-resistant surface that takes daily use in stride. Each grain and knot is its own — form with a fingerprint.
