Koba Chair Maya White

Cream white curves, with foam and springs underneath. Graceful contours and curved lines shape the Koba chair, giving a contemporary room something soft to sit in and look at. High-quality foam filling rests over zigzag springs and webbing support, so the seat has give without losing shape. A polyester and acrylic blend upholstery covers it in a cream white tone. Soft to sit in, structured underneath.

- Curves All Over: Graceful contours and curved lines give the chair a soft shape that works as an accent piece as much as a seat.
- Calm in Cream White: Upholstery in a polyester and acrylic blend carries a cream white tone that sits easily alongside most color palettes and room styles.
- Support That Holds: Zigzag springs and webbing sit beneath the cushion, giving the seat responsive lift that stays even across the whole surface.
- Soft on Contact: High-quality foam filling makes the seat plush the moment you sit and steady after, so comfort holds through daily use.
- FSC-Certified Frame: The pine and plywood frame is FSC-certified, sourced from forests that are responsibly managed to be environmentally sound and socially beneficial.
