

Teller Accent Chair Warm Black

A little retro, a lot modern. The Teller Chair layers flecked fabric with top grain leather wrapping the arms and back for a warm, tonal contrast. Cushioned with foam, fiber, and faux feather fill, the seat is soft yet supportive. Slim rubberwood legs lift the look with mid-century ease. A study in balance, Teller shows how mixed materials can be both vintage-inspired and refreshingly new.

- Balanced design: Clean lines, narrow arms, and a minimal frame echo modern simplicity with a subtle nod to retro styling.
- Leather detail: Warm black top grain leather wraps the arms and back, developing a natural patina that deepens character over time.
- Textured fabric: Flecked polyester upholstery contrasts the leather while offering tactile depth and everyday performance for lasting use.
- Cushioned comfort: Foam, fiber, and faux feather fill create a sink-in seat that stays supportive through daily lounging.
