

Rowe Accent Chair Beige

Rowe makes beige feel intentional. A subtly patterned polyester weave softens the seat, while a hammered cast-aluminum frame adds crisp texture and graphic contrast. Foam-and-fiber fill keeps lounging comfortable, from quick check-ins to longer reads. The silhouette stays clean and modern, with metalwork that looks crafted, not fussy. Easy to place beside a sofa or in a bedroom corner, Rowe adds interest without stealing the scene. Its neutral tone plays with wood, leather, or color.

- Contrast-Forward Form: Tonal beige upholstery meets a hammered metal frame for a clean mix of warmth and structure that suits many styles.
- Textured Polyester Weave: 100% polyester upholstery in tonal beige adds subtle pattern and an easy-care surface that holds its look through everyday use.
- Hammered Cast Aluminum: Cast-aluminum frame features a hammered finish for dimensional detail and dependable support, keeping the chair visually light yet steady.
- Comfort-Ready Fill: Foam and fiber fill offers a cushioned sit with gentle resilience, making Rowe a go-to accent for extra seating.
