Simone Sideboard Brown

Storage, but make it soft. Simone wraps a brown linen-like fabric case around a warm ash-veneer top and base, blending cozy texture with clean wood lines. Curved doors keep the silhouette easy on the eyes, and the solid ash ball handle adds a playful point of focus. Inside, ash veneer over MDF keeps the look consistent, while a solid pine frame supports it all. Soft-close hinges keep things quiet and give every open-and-close a calm finish.

- Curved, Friendly Profile: Brown linen-like fabric and rounded doors soften hard lines, while exposed ash veneer top and base keep the look grounded.
- Mixed Materials, One Story: Fabric on the front and sides pairs with ash veneer over MDF inside and on top for a cohesive finish.
- Solid Support Core: A solid pine frame and support rail provide steady structure, designed to stay square and reliable through daily use.
- Quiet-Close Access: Soft-close hinges reduce noise and bounce, and the solid ash ball handle gives an easy grip with a playful touch.
