

Sterling Accent Chair Brown Leather

Top-grain leather that earns its character one sit at a time. A button-tufted back nods to mid-century design, giving the Sterling accent chair a grounded, considered presence. Slender arms on a powder-coated steel frame keep the silhouette light, while zig-zag spring suspension and foam fill deliver everyday support. Leather wraps the arms too, adding a little warmth right where you rest them. Comfort and patina, both designed to age well.

- Mid-Century Nod: A button-tufted back and slim profile reference mid-century design, lending a light, considered look that settles easily into modern seating arrangements.
- Top-Grain Leather: 100% top-grain leather is smooth and wipeable, developing a natural patina over time so the chair reads more lived-in with every year.
- Supportive Frame: A powder-coated steel frame pairs with zig-zag spring suspension and foam fill, delivering steady, comfortable support that holds its shape through daily use.
- All in the Arms: Slender arms wrapped in the same leather add warmth and softness right where you rest them, balancing the chair's clean, modern lines.
