

Sulu C Table White

Slides right in where you need it. This C-shaped table tucks beside a sofa or over an armrest, putting a white marble surface within easy reach. The marble top shows natural veining, striations, and textured grooves—details that make each piece visually distinct. A gold-finished solid iron base pairs warm metallic tones with the cool stone above. Natural materials, natural imperfections, and a shape that earns its spot.

- C-Table Shape: The cantilevered C-table profile tucks under a sofa or beside a chair, keeping essentials close without taking up floor space.
- White Marble Top: A solid marble tabletop features natural veining, rock striations, and textured grooves that make each piece one of a kind.
- Gold-Finished Iron: A solid iron base with a gold finish provides a warm, stable anchor that complements the cooler tones of the marble above.
- Natural Imperfections: Unusual veining, grooves, and uneven texture are inherent to the natural marble, ensuring no two tables look the same.
