

Swift Modular Sofa Light Beige

A sofa that shows up ready for real life. Swift’s modular design lets you stretch out, scale down, or rework the layout when your space—or guest list—changes. Plush feather, fiber, and foam cushions keep lounging front and center, supported by an engineered wood frame. Upholstered in C0 performance polyester, it’s durable without feeling stiff. Knock-down construction is made for small parcel shipping, and metal interlocking brackets make assembly straightforward. Modular comfort, with a plan built.

- Light Beige Span: Light beige upholstery brightens a modular silhouette that reads calm and contemporary, whether you keep it compact or stretch it wide.
- C0 Performance Fabric: 100% polyester upholstery is performance treated and PFA-free, balancing a soft hand with durability suited to everyday living at home.
- Feather-Blend Comfort: Feather, fiber, and foam cushions layer softness and support, so the sofa keeps its lounge-ready feel through busy weeks and weekends.
- Easy KD Assembly: Knock-down construction supports small-parcel shipping, with full assembly required and metal interlocking brackets connecting the back and arms securely.
